Wedding Photography

“Our fairytale wedding with an album of beautiful scenery and magical moments to always remember our day.”

A wedding for all seasons...

Flowers are in bloom all year round at the Blue Mountain Botanic Garden, not just spring. Along with dramatic vistas, the Garden offers spectacular floral backdrops for your special day. Below is a list of what you can often find in bloom throughout the year:

SPRING

The Garden bursts with magnificent displays of colour as the bulbs, cherry blossoms and the waratah collection come into full bloom.

- Waratah (Telopea species and cultivars)
- Paeonia cultivars
- Blue puya (Puya alpestris ssp. Zoellneri)
- Rhododendrons (species and cultivars)

SUMMER

Warm days and balmy evenings allow wedding guests to take full advantage of the Garden's summer splendour featuring hydrangeas, liliiums and dahlias.

- Hydrangea species and cultivars
- Dahlia
- Liliiums
- Rhododendrons

AUTUMN

The golden hues of autumn transform the Garden, creating a glorious blanket of colour from red maples to the golden Ginkgos.

- Japanese maple
- Red Maple
- "Mona" (Plectranthus)

WINTER

As the native trees and plants blossom, the crisp air and soft light unite to add a mystical edge to winter wedding celebrations against backdrops of camellias, King proteas and more than 150,000 daffodils.

- King protea (Protea cynaroides)
- Snow Drops (Galanthus elwesii)
- Camellias
- Daffodils (Narcissus)
